CONFERENCE OVERVIEW:

The Case Management Society of America – Charlotte Metro Chapter is pleased to present this 2018 conference for case managers in the Charlotte Metro and surrounding areas.

This conference has been planned with the intention of inspiring, recharging, and providing practical, useful information to those practicing in the field of case management. The highly qualified, outstanding conference speakers will provide information useful to case managers in all varieties of roles and settings. The relaxed country club environment was a success in 2016 and we are repeating this venue for 2018. Hopefully this conference will provide you a day of relaxation, great food, networking and allow the participants to leave with new knowledge and tools to use while making each of your days “ANOTHER DAY OF MAGIC”!

This conference will provide the participants with an opportunity to network with our exhibiting partners in health care who will provide information which will assist you in your day to day practice of case management. Charlotte Metro Chapter is VERY grateful for their support and also to many of them for their involvement and support of our monthly learning presentations.

The Charlotte Metro Chapter strives to provide participants with a high quality conference at a “no tricks” cost.
