Speaker: Stephanie Craycroft, Pharm D: “Medication Adherence Issues”

Stephanie Craycroft-Andrews, PharmD, BCACP completed pharmacy school at UNC-Chapel Hill followed by an ambulatory care-focused residency at the Veterans Affairs (VA) Medical Center in Salisbury, NC. She became a Board-Certified Ambulatory Care Pharmacist (BCACP) with the Board of Pharmacy Specialties in 2017. In addition to over 9 years of part-time work in the community pharmacy setting, Stephanie has performed medication therapy management (MTM) services for the NC Medicaid population while working with Community Care of North Carolina (CCNC)'s Wake/Johnston Counties network and for Medicare Advantage beneficiaries within her current role at Cigna-HealthSpring.

Speakers: Adrian Dixon, D. Min. and Hili Metjian, MD: “Trying to Do the Right Thing…Or At Least Avoiding Doing the Wrong Thing: Ethics and Futility in Healthcare”

Rev. Adrian L. Dixon, Doctor of Ministry, Director, led the development of the Chaplain Services Department in 2003. He was Duke Raleigh Hospital's clinical chaplain from 2003-2005 and has served as the Director of Chaplain Services & Education since 2006. Adrian earned a BA in Religion from Campbell University, a Master of Divinity from Duke University and a Doctor of Ministry from Virginia Theological Seminary. He is an ordained Advent Christian minister and hold memberships with the Association of Clinical Pastoral Education, the Association of Professional Chaplains, and the North Carolina Chaplain's Association. He is actively involved in the community and speaks in various settings about the role of chaplaincy and ethics. In addition to his full-time role at the hospital, Adrian also pastors a church in Knightdale, NC.

Hili Metjian, MD is a Board Certified physician in pulmonary and critical care. Dr. Metjian completed her residency and fellowship at the University of North Carolina and her been practicing at Duke Raleigh Hospital since 2010. Dr. Metjian is the medical director of the ethics committee at Duke Raleigh Hospital.

Speaker: Ginger T. DeLario, PhD, MT(ASCP), CPTC, CTOP II: “Ethical Issues Surrounding Organ, Tissue and Eye Donation”

Ginger DeLario is a certified procurement transplant coordinator who serves as the Clinical Educator for Carolina Donor Services where she has worked for the past 19 years. She received her undergraduate degree in Biology from UNC-W, a Clinical Laboratory Science Degree from Duke, her doctorate in Transplant Business and Ethics from American University and an Adult Teaching Certification from Harvard.

Speaker: Caitlin Schryver, RD, CSO, LDN: “When Nutrition Takes a Detour: Tube Feeding in the Oncology Population”

Caitlin Schryver is a Registered Dietitian and Certified Specialist in Oncology Nutrition working as a Clinical Dietitian at Duke Raleigh Hospital. For the last 5 1/2 years she has served the inpatient oncology population providing nutrition guidance and symptom management for patients with a variety of cancer diagnoses. In addition to working closely with the inpatient Case Management team, she communicates with the dietitians and social workers at Duke Raleigh’s outpatient cancer centers to ensure a smooth transition of care for patients. In an effort to further improve patient care, Caitlin is collaborating on a multidiscipline approach to streamline head and neck cancer patient admissions for feeding tube placement. It is her goal to help as many cancer patients as possible improve their quality of life and survival through nutrition.

Speaker: Mark Philbrick, Transitions LifeCare: “Burned Out? Tools for Developing Resilience”

Mark has 44 years of healthcare experience. He completed Associate, Bachelors and Master’s Degrees in Nursing as well as certification as a Family Nurse Practitioner from the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill. He also attended the Executive MBA program at Duke’s Fuqua School of Business. His career spans clinical, academic and administrative duties in a wide variety of settings.

Mark’s career took a radical turn toward providing hospice care when both his father and older brother were stricken and died from terminal cancer in 2004. Mark has served as Director of Duke Hospice and Vice President of Clinical Operations for Hospice of Wake County. Mark currently serves as Director of Education and Volunteer Services at Transitions LifeCare in Raleigh, NC and is an Adjunct Faculty member at UNC School of Nursing in Chapel Hill.

Mark has served as President of the Triangle Chapter of the Hospice and Palliative Nurses Association and on the Board of Directors of the Carolinas Center for Hospice and End of Life Care.

On a personal level Mark loves travel and has done short term medical mission trips to Central and South American as well as parts of Africa. He has been married for 38 years to Karen, a fellow nurse practitioner and UNC Alum and has 3 grown children (Ben, Nick and Alexandra) who want nothing to do with either providing healthcare or receiving it.

DAY 2: Friday, September 20, 2019

Speakers: Denny Powell, OTL and Gina Ayscue, RN, BSN, CCM: WakeMed Rehab Admissions: “Post-Acute Care: The Right Rehab at the Right Time”

Denny Powell, OTL: After receiving his OT degree in Louisiana in 1980, Denny worked at New Orleans Children’s Hospital, Grady Hospital in Atlanta, private practice and home health with advanced training in treatment of the neurological population in both adults and children. Denny has worked at WakeMed for almost 20 years. He has a strong love for rehab and the process patients go through to regain their highest potential. He has shared that passion with his patients and staff here at WakeMed in on the acute floors and Rehab Management. Currently, Denny represents WakeMed in the role of Rehab Marketing and Referral Development.

Gina Ayscue, RN, BSN, CCM: Gina has had wide spectrum of nursing experience in her 28-year career. Ranging from Neuro, Cardiac, Surgical, OB, and Pediatrics; as well as school nursing, home health, and marketing. Gina worked for over 15 years in Cardiac Rehab, cooperate wellness, and community education in the Charlotte area. She relocated to Raleigh and came to WakeMed Rehab Admissions in 2015. She completed her BSN through Winston Salem State in May of 2018 and obtained her CCM in September of 2018. Gina is very passionate in assisting acutely ill patients to return to their highest level of independence. This not only includes WakeMed’s acute patients, but she is also the liaison for the very complex critically ill patients admitted from Duke University Hospital in Durham. Gina is just as equally passionate about giving back to her community, as she volunteers with the North Carolina Spinal Cord Injury Association yearly gala and WakeMed’s Foundation WakeMed Gives Campaign. Gina has been married for almost 30 years and has 3 children.

Speaker: Dr. Anuradha Rao-Patel: “The Effects of THC, CBD and Vaping in Medicine Today”

Anuradha Rao-Patel, MD, is a Lead Medical Director at Blue Cross and Blue Shield of North Carolina. She is responsible for the evaluation of the medical necessity, appropriateness, and efficiency of the use of health care services, procedures, prescription drugs, and facilities under the provisions of the applicable health benefits plan. Before joining Blue Cross NC, she worked in a private practice doing acute and chronic pain management.

Speaker: Georgina Dukes: “NCCARE360: Launching a Coordinated Network”

Georgina Dukes is the State Project Manager for Unite Us – a tech company created to address Social Determinants of Health. Prior to her employment with Unite Us, Georgina served a Strategic Services Associate for Duke Heart, an Administrative Fellow at Duke University Hospital. Her career has involved working in academic medical center strategic operations and bridging the gap between hospitals and community health initiatives. Georgina earned her bachelor’s in health science from Clemson University and her master’s in health administration from the Medical University of South Carolina. She is an active member of the North Carolina NAHSE chapter.

Speaker: Jim Flanagan, OT: “The Use of Technology in Recovering from Spinal Cord Injury”
